General Meeting Minutes

Meeting Minutes by: Mary Beth Skey, Secretary

Date: 9/18/2023 Phone: 803-968-0827

Location: FBC Fellowship Hall

Call to order

Called to order at 7:00 Lauren welcomes us. In an effort to shorten the meetings, hospitality will only include drinks. Grab drinks and have a seat on a normal basis.

Devotion Given by Jenny Knopf- Devotion on Gal 6:6-9. What we harvest depends on what we planted. What we pour into matters. Plant healthy seeds which will lead to healthy fruit. Do not give up, God will meet us with strength and grace.

Speaker: Laurie Noonan Merchant - Don't underestimate the impact your time and attention have on the community. Things that feel small make large impacts in the lives of the people around us. What you do with the league impacts people and places that you may never see or possibly even hear about. So thank you for showing up and keep showing up.

President's Remarks: Lauren Locklear Everyone received their Lantern.

Vice President: Jenny Knopf: No report

Secretary: Mary Beth Skey: No Report

Treasurer: Susan Weber:
Administrative account $19,286.93
Community Trust account $25,092.69

Assistant Secretary: Larsen Cline: no report

Assistant Treasurer: Mandy Baiback: Salvation Army Kettle will be passed at November general meeting.

Fundraiser: Mary Kathryn Hulme: Everyone received Deck the Door packets. Orders Due October 17th. Pick up will be December 2nd at the Pink Century House. Everyone has a goal of selling 10 wreaths.

Hospitality: Anna James: Tea will be held at the homes of Nancy Branham, October 16th from 4-6. Formal invitation will be sent out via email and in the next lantern.

Placement Council: Tiffany Rogers: Everyone should have their placements, if not please contact Tiffany to clarify.

Provisional Chariman: Lisa Furse: 20 new provisionals! Sept 16th puppet show, Stacy to give history. Provisional meeting will take place after general meetings. Lisa is very proud and excited for this coming year!

Sustainer Representative: Lee Ann Bostic: No report.

Communications: Hillary Griffin: Please take pictures at the Tea and share with Hillary via text or email. Also take pictures as you are working your placement hours and send those in as well.

Wishing Well: Christine Kohl: Please make sure you are showing for your shift. The reminder text is a courtesy so don't rely on it to remind you if you are working. Please send reminder text and if you don't hear from them follow up with the person and Christine if it continues to be an issue. Things have been busier which is great for us and increases our ability to give back to the community so show up to your shift ready to work you may find you have less time to do things like read or catch up on outside work. And please make sure you are staying on top of restocking. If everyone works to do that it makes it easier for everyone.

New Business

Above and beyond nominations go to Mollie Oswald. 25% off coupon for anyone with a birthday June- September.

SJWL Tshirts are available. If you want one contact Lauren by the end of the week. Proceeds from shirt sales will be used as a donation to First Baptist Church as a thank you for allowing us to use their meeting space free of charge.

Puppets

by Jennifer Reimer

Puppets are in full swing! The puppeteers have spent the month of September preparing for the Sumter County Jubilee puppet show. Local schools have been invited to attend this 30-minute puppet production and learn fun facts about South Carolina and the history of the backcountry. The students are then guided through a tour of the museum to learn more about the history of Sumter County.

Jennifer Reimer (Chair), Katie Shaw (Co-Chair), Mary Peton Clepper, Katie Stafford, Mary Katherine Aronson, Amy Barrineau, and Kate Price.

Admissions

by Jessica Fralick

The Sumter Junior Welfare League has been serving our community for decades. The commitment and dedication of our members is what has allowed us to continue to grow and be successful. As League members, we get to enrich our own lives through our volunteer work, while seeing the difference we make in our community. The Admissions Committee has the privilege of reviewing proposed candidates provided by sustainers and current members. The committee is honored to take on the task of vetting new League members as we know continued growth is key to ensure the ongoing success of the Sumter Junior Welfare League. We so look forward to learning about all of the women who will be nominated this year!

The deadline to pick up admission nomination packets is November 1st. The deadline to turn in admission nomination packets is at the general meeting November 13th.

I would like to thank each of the committee members for their willingness to serve this year. I look forward to working with you all. Committee members are Anna James (co-chair), Leslie Horton, Ashlee Lloyd, Mollie Oswald, Katie Shaw, Caroline Zitzke, Lisa Furse, Hillary Griffin, Mandy Baibak, Brittany Huckeba, Whitney Brown, Valerie James (sustainer), Wynn Tesenair (sustainer), Jana Jackson (sustainer alternate), and Brenley Davis (non-voting).
